More restaurant wiki stories note that the Help/Q&A section is shared off the main menu in the game responding to a number of queries. Here you will find some more answers... Can I move my game to another device? yes. A step-by-step guide of how to do this can be found here. Note that this method will result in all your Storm8 games being transferred, although they can be transmitted with the same method. Can I change The 8th Storm ID? yes. To do this, email support@teamlava.com your current Storm8 ID, at least three different names you'd like as your new Storm8 ID, and a convenient reason to change. Can I restart my game from the start? no. Now the only way to start again is through a new account that can only be done via another device. When will the game be reset for a new day? At midnight Pacific Standard Time (PST). To convert this for your time zone, you can go here. What is the maximum number of devices? There are no limits, although you can only open 18 appliance slots without spending gems. The 18 device opens at level 73. After this point, you can choose to add additional slots for 49 gems each. On which levels do new home appliance slots open? To start the game you will be given 2 slots. Then the number of slots increases in four increases, then five, and repetitions. So in full: open slots level 3 5 4 10 5 14 6 19 7 23 8 28 9 32 10 37 11 41 12 46 13 50 14 55 15 59 16 64 17 68 18 73 How can I make table appliances? Tap the parts box that appears after you buy the device and you'll see a window that meets the requirements for making the device. Tap "ask friends" to apply parts from neighbors, or use gems instead (note that the number of gems shown is for a section - not to buy up the required number of parts). Each section you currently automatically included in What recipes are available on each device? There are too many lists here, but feel free to visit the excellent excellent dynasty which is a full list of recipes, both past and present. What parts are needed for any manufacturable device? Again, there are too many supplies to list them all here, but the excellent dynasty has a wonderful desk with all the details for past and present supplies. What is an easy device? These are enhanced versions of basic ovens, cookers and grills. The increase is that they do not require any tapping to prepare food before cooking, and only one fauce to serve after cooking. What is Forever Supplies? These are enhanced versions of basic ovens, cookers and grills. The increase is that the food cooked on them is never ruined. What's a sound device? These are enhanced versions of basic ovens, cookers and grills. The increase is that food takes 20% less time to cook. For example, the 1-day recipe will take only 17 hours, 36 minutes to cook (remember that 1-day recipes typically take 22 hours to cook). What does it mean for a 'master' recipe? This means that cooking recipes repeatedly to fill meters along the bottom of the container in the recipe book. The number of times a container needs to be cooked to master each level and rewards for doing so is as follows: mastering the number of bonus container levels 1 8 2,000 coins and 20 XP 2 2 23 1 Gem and 50 XP 3 43 4,000 coins and 100 XP 4 83 1 Gem and 200 XP How can I open Apple Sider on a drink machine? you cant . The recipe was part of the Christmas targets of 2011, and if you didn't open it by completing them at the time, then you would never be able to open it. The same applies to other target items such as Hamm's holidays, as well as many recipes that have been removed altogether such as Porridge Pumpkin and Christmas Pear Tourette's. How do I shake the face? There should always be doors placed in your restaurant, so to move it you need to buy another door for 10 gems on the wall decoration tab. Then put it wherever you want and save the other door. How do I delete wallpapers and floor tiles I had previously purchased? Unfortunately you can't. You can only place different wallpapers or floor tiles over existing ones, which will lead to originally being transferred to storage. What are the boxes in the last tab? These are a draw for your 24 gems 'lucky dip' into the box and will be given an item in random. However some cases are more common than others. I strongly ask you to take a look at the contents of the box before separating with any gems by visiting the Storm8 forum. If I have enough coins or gems, can I skip the spread and move straight to the next coin? no. You must apply each expansion in order. How do I get the flowers needed to complete the bouquet in the Collectibles section? Each flower appears when you buy wallpapers and wall decorations. Yet they are very rare to come by. I can only buy offers from wallpaper Hours! Why is there no more purpose? Targets are published only occasionally, and not according to any timeframe. Their release is usually related to the time of year (e.g. Christmas, Valentine's Day, summer). If any are already active, they are listed on the right side of this page. Why do some of my neighbors' requests appear to me just two days after they've been raised? That's because of your neighbor, players can only make 20 gift requests a day, so if they make more, then those who are not accepted first will be shipped until the next day. If they have more than 40 requests, those who are not answered will be shipped to a third day, and the like. How do I use images in messages to neighbors? To do this you need to download an app with a restaurant story (or TeamLava). The most commonly used app for this is called emoji and is found here (UK App Store). store).
